Principal's Message

Beaumont High School is part of the Beaumont Unified School District. The district, located in the San Gorgonio Pass between Riverside and Palm Springs, serves $8,128 \mathrm{~K}-12$ students residing in the city of Beaumont, the unincorporated community of Cherry Valley, and portions of Banning and Calimesa. The community served by the district has expanded rapidly, from a population of approximately 11,000 in 2000 to its current estimated population of 27,000; the Beaumont Unified School District student population has increased dramatically as well. During the 2001-'02 academic year, the district served 3,912 students, 941 of them at the high school. The respective numbers for the 2007-'08 academic year were 7,758 and 2,141 . Beaumont High School is currently the only comprehensive high school in the Beaumont Unified School District, providing educational services to students in grades nine through twelve; an additional 77 students participating in Laura May Stewart Independent Study students also receive services through the high school, taking the total number of students served to 2,218 .
The local economy, driven largely by light industry, has not kept pace with population growth, so a significant percentage of Beaumont residents commute to jobs in San Bernardino, Riverside, and points west. Nevertheless, Beaumont retains much of its small-town feel and many of the commensurate values and sensibilities. Chief among those values is strong community support for Beaumont Unified School District schools. Beaumont High School athletic events, drama performances, and other extracurricular programs, such as Back-to-School Night and College Night, are well-attended.
Parents and community members who serve on decision-making committees like the School Site Council (SSC) and the English Learner Advisory Committee (ELAC) have a direct and positive impact on the school program by providing input regarding fiscal, operational and cultural issues. Other parent volunteers provide assistance with school mailings, field trips, registration, History Day, and the athletic program, as well as helping out in the office and the library. The Beaumont High School Booster Club and the Band Booster Club are both large and active and provide extensive support to their respective programs. With continued growth in student population, more athletic teams on campus have added booster clubs to help with their specific needs. Local businesses and individuals have sponsored fundraisers, provided assistance with school events and event planning, and have otherwise given generously of their time and resources; the city of Beaumont and the Beaumont-Cherry Valley Recreation and Park District have graciously shared facilities and personnel as well. Beaumont High School Education and Human Development Academy (Academy) students have provided tutoring support to local elementary school within their reading program.
Beaumont High School maintains active partnerships with a variety of local businesses and post-secondary institutions. Local businesses and business people provide advice, mentoring, job-shadowing, and other hands-on, real-world experience for students enrolled in the Academy program. Both the Academy and Advancement Via Individual Determination (AVID) programs work with local colleges, universities, and trade schools (such as Mount San Jacinto and Crafton Hills Community Colleges, the University of California at Riverside and California State University at San Bernardino) to provide site visits and financial and academic information. Beaumont High School College Night has become an annual event and continues to expand along with our student population.

Beaumont High School faculty and staff are committed to providing all our students with the best possible learning experience. Our "Cougar Commitments" focus on academics, technological literacy, civic and social skills and post-secondary planning.

Instructional Materials

Beaumont Unified held a public hearing on September 22, 2009, and determined that each school within the district had sufficient and good quality textbooks, instructional materials, or science lab equipment pursuant to the settlement of Williams vs. the State of California. All students, including English learners, are given their own individual standards-aligned textbooks or instructional materials, or both, in core subjects for use in the classroom and to take home. Textbooks and supplementary materials are adopted according to a cycle developed by the California Department of Education, making the textbooks used in the school the most current available. Materials approved for use by the State are reviewed by all teachers and a recommendation is made to the School Board by a selection committee composed of teachers and administrators. All recommended materials are available for parent examination at the district office prior to adoption. The table displays information about the quality, currency, and availability of the standardsaligned textbooks and other instructional materials used at the school.

Science Lab Equipment

The school stocks an adequate supply of equipment for its students. Inventory includes, but is not limited to: microscopes, slides, ring stands, clamps, support rings, utility clamps, test tubes, test tube holders and brushes, tongs, flasks, beakers, and Bunsen burners. For more information, please call the school office.

Academic Performance Index

The Academic Performance Index (API) is a score on a scale of 200 to 1,000 that annually measures the academic performance and progress of individual schools in California. The state has set 800 as the API score that schools should strive to meet.
Statewide Rank: Schools receiving an API Base score are ranked in ten categories of equal size (deciles) from 1 (lowest) to 10 (highest), according to type of school (elementary, middle, or high school).
Similar Schools Rank: Schools also receive a ranking that compares that school to 100 other schools with similar demographic characteristics. Each set of 100 schools is ranked by API score from 1 (lowest) to 10 (highest) to indicate how well the school performed compared to similar schools.

Federal Intervention Program

Schools and districts receiving Federal Title I funding enter Program Improvement (PI) if they do not make AYP for two consecutive years in the same content area (English/Language Arts or Mathematics) or on the same indicator (API or graduation rate). After entering PI, schools and districts advance to the next level of intervention with each additional year that they do not make AYP.

Adequate Yearly Progress

No Child Left Behind (NCLB) is a federal law enacted in January 2002 that reauthorized the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA). It mandates that all students (including students who are economically disadvantaged, are from racial or ethnic minority groups, have disabilities, or have limited English proficiency) in all grades meet the state academic achievement standards for Mathematics and English/Language Arts by 2014. Schools must demonstrate "Adequate Yearly Progress" (AYP) toward achieving that goal. The Federal NCLB Act requires that all schools and districts meet the following Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) requirements:

- Participation rate on the state's standards-based assessments in English/ Language Arts (ELA) and Mathematics.
- Percent proficient on the state's standards-based assessments in ELA and Mathematics.
- API as an additional indicator.
- Graduation rate (for secondary schools).

There are several consequences for schools that do not meet the AYP standards, including additional tutoring and replacing of staff. Students would also be allowed to transfer to schools (within their district) that have met their AYP, and the former school would be required to provide the transportation to the new site. Results of school and district performance are displayed in

National Assessment of Educational Progress

The National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) is an evaluation that is representative of what America's students know and can do in various subject areas. Assessments are conducted periodically in mathematics, reading, science, writing, the arts, civics, economics, geography, and U.S. history. Student scores for reading and mathematics are reported as performance levels (i.e., basic, proficient, and advanced) and the participation of students with disabilities (SD) and English language learners (ELL) is reported based on three levels (identified, excluded, and assessed). Detailed information regarding the NAEP results for each grade, performance level, and participation rate can be found on the National Assessment of Educational Progress Web page at http://nces.ed.gov/nationsreportcard.

| Math 2009 Grade 8 | 270 | 282 | 36 | 18 | 5 |

Reporting scores for each subject area is not available for the same year, reading scores reflect results from 2007 and mathematics scores reflect results from 2009. The first table displays the National Assessment of Educational Progress Results for reading (2007) and mathematics (2009) for grades four and eight by scale score and achievement level. The second table displays the participation rates on the National Assessment of Educational Progress for reading (2007) and mathematics (2009) by students with disabilities and/or English language learners for grades four and eight.
NOTE: Only a sample group of California's schools and districts participate in the NAEP testing cycle. Therefore, students in any particular school or district may not be included in these results. The NAEP reflects state test results and is not reflective of either the LEA or the individual school.

California High School Exit Exam (CAHSEE)

The California High School Exit Exam is primarily used as a graduation English requirement in California, but the results of this exam are also used to determine Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) for high schools, as required by the Federal No Child Left Behind (NCLB) law.

The CAHSEE has an English language-arts section and a math section and, for purposes of calculating AYP, three performance levels were set: Advanced, Proficient, and Not Proficient. The score a student must achieve to be considered Proficient is different than the passing score for the graduation requirement. The first table displays the percent of students achieving at the Proficient or Advanced level for the past three years. The second table displays the percent of students, by group, achieving at each performance level in English language-arts and math separately for the most recent testing period.

Completion of High School Graduation Requirements

Beginning with the graduating class of 2006, students in California public schools must pass both the English-language arts and mathematics portions of the California High School Exit Examination (CAHSEE) to receive a high school diploma. For students who began the 2008-09 school year in the 12th grade, the table displays by student group the percent who met all state and local graduation requirements for grade 12 completion, including having passed both portions of the CAHSEE or received a local waiver or state exemption. Detailed information about the CAHSEE can be found at the CDE Web site at http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/hs/. Note: "*" means that the student group is not numerically significant.

Beaumont Senior High believes that effective instruction consists of the continuous building of new concepts upon existing ones and requires regular attendance and participation. In hopes of preventing and reducing dropouts, the following programs are made available to students: CAHSEE Preparation, and after school tutoring. In addition, there is support provided through the school counseling department where counselors meet regularly with students, both individually and in small groups, in order to evaluate progress.
